THE

STUDENT LIFE

Get That Foot-Stomping,

Hand-Clapping Beat

On Friday, October 24, Rusty Wier, a progressive country singer, came to S.G. to perform. He gave two shows in a back-to-back assembly. Tickets for one show were $1.50. It was a foot-stomping, hand-clapping performance in which he sang such hits as "Don't It Make You Wanna Dance," "Sally Mae," and "Trouble."

In the spirit of the occasion, Friday was declared Western Day and most of the students participated.

A perfect ending to this great day was the Colonel's stomping defeat over the Garland Owls — 35 to 7.

South Garland High

Though S.G. has only been around for one-twentieth the time our country has, our tenth homecoming was still a memorable day. Exes from the school's first graduating class were especially invited to come.

That night, during half-time of the S.G.-J. J. Pearce game (which ended in a 7-7 tie), Ronda Regan was announced Homecoming Queen.

Has a Birthday, Too

Couples Celebrate Bicentennial

Our country's 200th birthday was the theme of this year's Coronation Ball held November 1. The S.G. Ballroom was decked in red, white, and blue stars and stripes as couples danced to the music of Titus Oates.

The Times They Are A-Changing

After an ever shortening summer, the schools once again opened their doors. Newcomers and oldtimers alike adapted themselves to the many changes this year: the presence of some 450 freshmen, computer grading and scheduling, the tri-quarter system which offered a variety of new mini courses, and the opening of the colorful, carpeted wing which contained a cosmetology room, a radio-T.V. room, and 23 more classrooms.

The Means of Mobility

By car, bus, motorcycle, bicycle, or foot they came. Some statistics: each day approximately 650 cars filled the parking lot, two buses carried a total of 115 students to and from school, about 50 students drove motorcycles, and 25 rode bicycles. During the first few weeks of school, construction was done to enlarge the student and faculty parking lots.

A Day at the Fair

Garland Schools were closed on October 6 to allow students to attend the State Fair of Texas.

Six boys from South Garland were selected for representation in the Fair's Physical Fitness Competition. The S.G. team finished sixth place from among 50 schools.

Drama Dept. Presents . . .

The S.G. drama department's superb contribution to the Bicentennial celebration was the presentation of "Ah, Wilderness" — Eugene O'Neill's romantic comedy set in Connecticut in July, 1906. The audience of 150 maximum was seated on the stage for the five performances shown from October 26-30.

The main parts were played by Mike Medley, Vicki Wooldridge, Clayton Swindell, Darrell Muncy, Cathy Gee, Cindy Hartzell, and Paula Evans.

Break Habits

That short but refreshing ten minute break after first period was spent in a variety of ways.

Students' Talents Diversified

With the diversity of courses open to students at South Garland High, there was much to learn. Though some found the going tough, each (hopefully) succeeded in his own field.

Freedom of Choice Exercised

South Garland continued its open campus system in which students patronized local spots as well as the school cafeteria.

Past Styles Unite With Present

Styles turned toward the nostalgic with the return of knee length skirts and dresses, long plaid and fur-trimmed coats, neck scarves, and wedges . . .

The Informal Side of S.G.

... Yet the contemporary jeans and t-shirts remained on the scene. The t-shirt's versatility in expression made it a popular dress item.

A new arrival was the Earth shoe. The sole was constructed so that the heel was lower than the ball of the foot, making for more comfortable walking.

As Christmas approached, the tempo at school increased. The Senior class held their annual Christmas party for underprivileged children on Sunday, December 14. Each participating senior was given the name of a child to buy a gift for, and Santa Claus was there to give out the presents.

The Joy of Giving

A Dickens of a Christmas

The week before Christmas holidays, door decorations were put up for judging on December 18, the annual canned food drive was sponsored by the Student Council, and clubs got together to practice Christmas carols which they sang down the halls that Friday. During second and third periods Friday morning, the South Garland band and choir combined their talents to produce a truly effective Christmas concert. At 2:00 p.m. school was dismissed for a two-week holiday.

Crowds, Crowds, Crowds

Never before had S.G. been besieged by so many students — 2660 in all. And chances were, the halls would never again be so filled, due to the opening of Garland's fourth high school next year.

A person caught in the halls between classes was likely to find himself being pushed the wrong way unless he knew a few basic rules:

1. keep to the right side of the halls
2. don't get too close to the lockers to avoid crashing into people or open locker doors
3. begin crossing over one door before if you need to reach the left side of the hall.

Traffic where two halls intersected was especially congested. Yet miraculously the ringing of the tardy bells echoed down empty halls.

Happy Birthday,

Finally the big year arrived, the year of 1976. Cities across the nation worked to contribute their share in wishing America a Happy Birthday. In Garland, a flag raising ceremony was held simultaneously at each school. South Garland's President's Council led our school's ceremony. Bicentennial books were dedicated to the library in memory of S.G. students who had passed away last year. Also, students became aware of the historical plaques lining the library hall. Some students, like Jim Trotman, celebrated the Bicentennial in their own original way.

America!

Back to Bygone Days

Students entered the charming, carefree world of the Old South on January 17 with the advent of the Colonel Ball. The Presentation Ceremony, beginning at 7:30 p.m., preceded the Ball. Honors were announced by Master and Mistress of Ceremonies, David Dodd and Vicki Woolbridge. The highest honor of Colonel and His Lady was awarded to Robyn Taylor and Jana Moore. Between the announcements, the stage band and the Showboaters provided entertainment.

A Gala Occasion —

The Colonel Ball

Following the Presentation Ceremony, January 17, couples strolled to the S.G. Ballroom which was filled with gazebos entwined with ivy, white picket fences, and hanging plants. Everyone had a good time dancing to the music of Pleasures of Time.

Worth It All

in the End

It was expensive to be a senior. Some of the expenses belonging exclusively to seniors were: senior rings (bought during junior year) — minimum $45.00, school pictures — from $20.00 to $70.00, class pictures — $3.50 and $6.50, senior t-shirts — $5.00, graduation announcements — minimum $10.00, and activity cards — $25.00.

At the rate that prices were going up, underclassmen were wise to begin saving up early. However, it was worth it all in the end.

Spirit-Filled

The participation in this year's intramural sports was the largest yet. Both boys and girls joined in playing football, basketball, and volleyball. Leading this year's tough competition were the Rookies in volleyball and the Roundballers in basketball. Much spirit and enthusiasm was shown at SG in this intramural season.

This year's Freshmen began their first year at South Garland with anticipation and enthusiasm but also with a little apprehension. They were excited about their first year in high school, but since this was the first time freshmen had ever attended South Garland, they did not have a ready-made place to fit into. Some students at South Garland were not always ready to accept them: nevertheless, they joined right into life at S.G. with a determined spirit. Band members, cheerleaders, athletes, class officers, and student council members, all joined right into the spirit of things, and S.G. soon accepted and became proud of its first freshman class. The Freshmen of '76 have set a tradition of pride and spirit that all future freshman classes will be proud to follow.

It seems to me a crime
That we should age.
These fragile times
Should never slip us by.
A time you never can
Or shall erase,
As friends together
Watch their childhood fly.
Making friends
For the world to see,
Let the people know
You got what you need.
With a friend on hand,
You will see the light.
If your friends are there,
Then everything's alright.

Those Dear Old

Golden School Days

School involved more than classes, grades, and bells. There were always those extracurricular activities such as football, drill team, track or for those of us with creative abilities, the newspaper staff. Long hours and hard work went into these different phases of our school day. Of course, the basis of our dedication was that strong Colonel spirit.

As Time Goes By

As time goes by we remember the good times we had and try to forget the bad. One of the strongest memories we have is that of the pep rallies which overflowed with enthusiasm. It was a feeling that would be hard to find in many other schools. The spirit flowed through the halls of South Garland and was visible on the faces of many students.

Expressions of a School Year

While walking down the halls during the school year, people's faces could pretty well tell what they were thinking. The stories they told ranged from serious and thoughtful to comical or funny.

Cheryl,
Let's even nice known ya
Be good a make ya
life what you want
it.
Love,
Dlo

Take Me To Tomorrow

Take me to tomorrow where the future meets today. Guide me to tomorrow where I may find my fate. Help me to tomorrow so that I may find the me I want to be
. . . and peace.

SPIRIT

Throughout South Garland's history, we have been known for our vibrant spirit and enthusiasm. Competition, whether representing our school in athletics or academics, was filled with an inner strength that many find hard to match. Even though there were times we felt dejected or lost, we still had that small flicker of spirit. We may have failed but were always victorious in the end. S. G. instilled in us a pride for what is ours. We will carry this feeling with us the rest of our lives, knowing we cannot fail.

Cheryl,
 It's really been fun in history. have fun
 this summer. Be good and stay cool. Love
